claim it is the best hair preparation to the Honolulu racing men that I am quite sure the attendance at the next meeting will be even larger than at the opening of the track. To show you how interested the Honolulu people are I have only to tell you that when our Thanksgiving meeting was postponed, owing to the rains, it was suggested at a meeting of the association that the races be declared off until Christmas. This was voted down, in fact the motion was scarcely considered for reason that it would not be fair to Hilo.

"Some of the best running horses as well as record trotters and pacers will be here for your meeting. Bonny Judd W. W. Curtis arrived last night on the will bring up Silas S, and two others here, besides one or two dark ones that are promised by other owners. Jack Wilson has some good horses on the track at Honolulu, all of them known here, and one new one that came down on the China the day before I left Honolulu. George McKenzle, the stock ed for our races and he will bring them up here. Now then with what McManus has in training and the H lo horses that will surely go on the track the two days' racing in January should be worth looking at.

"The track is much beter than it was on July 4th and will be improved still more before the events come off. I went around the course with Mr. Wilson the other day and found men at work taking out all the stones and raking over the ground. The greatest improvement, however, is in lifting up the track on the short turn just as you enter the short stretch. That point was the most objected to by the drivers at They were med the last races and I am glad to see it has been changed. For a half mile track I consider it equal to any in the United States and being good guarantees that the reputation of Hilo for encouraging sports will be made. I expect to see the time when Honolulu and Hilo will be sufficiently strong in attraction for the owners of Coast horses to come here with their animals, but of course it will take pretty fair pursua to induce them to go to the expense It means a big lot of money to tak-horses such a long distance and the
